

Dog sledding in historical surroundings

Dog sledding and winter experiences on historical grounds in the Arctic mountains. (private tour)

Do you want to experience the power of dogs as they pull you forward through beautiful surroundings while you feel the adrenaline rushes through your body? Starting from Jakobsbakken in Sulitjelma, with magnificent buildings dating back to the mining industry in the late 1800's, we will take you dog sledding in the mountains of Sulis.

Our certified guide gives you instructions on how to handle the huskies and the sled before you are ready to let your four-legged friends guide you into the Arctic mountains. Experience a magical tour in unspoilt nature, where you will experience close proximity to nature and the opportunity to see wildlife close up, including reindeer, grouse and foxes.

You will also get the opportunity to walk with snowshoes and try ice-water fishing or go cross-country skiing in tracks with World Cup standard.

Included: Guide, bonfire coffee and local food. Hot clothes.
